Facts - What does Regions do with your personal information?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and transaction history
- Payment history and credit history

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information, the reasons Regions chooses to share, and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

This notice is provided by Regions Bank and other companies with the Regions name.

What we do

How does Regions protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards, secured files, and secured buildings.

Our employees are bound by our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and our internal Privacy Policy, which provide that we will access personal customer information only for legitimate business purposes and that we will safeguard confidential information about you.

How does Regions collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- open an account or apply for a loan
- make deposits or withdrawals from your account, or use your credit or debit card
- provide account information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See the "Other important information" section for your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?	Your choices will apply individually unless you tell us otherwise.

Other important information

You may have other privacy protections under some state laws. We will comply with applicable state laws as to information about you, including medical information. Accounts with California or Vermont addresses will be treated as if you opted out of joint marketing arrangements.

For Vermont residents only: We will not disclose information about your creditworthiness to our affiliates and will not disclose your personal information, financial information, credit report, or health information to nonaffiliated third parties to market to you, other than as permitted by Vermont law, unless you authorize us to make those disclosures. Additional information concerning our privacy policies can be found at <https://www.regions.com/about-regions/privacy-security> or call 1.800.240.2948.

For Nevada residents only: We are providing you this notice under state law. You may be placed on our internal Do Not Solicit List by following the directions in the "To limit direct marketing contact" section. Nevada law requires we provide the following contact information: Bureau of Consumer Protection, Office of the Nevada Attorney General, 555 E. Washington St., Suite 3900, Las Vegas, NV 89101; phone number, 702-486-3132; email, BCPINFO@ag.state.nv.us.

Do Not Call Policy

This notice serves as the Regions Do Not Call Policy required by the Telephone Consumer Protection Act. Our associates receive training on how to document and process opt outs for telephone marketing calls. Consumers who request to no longer receive these calls will be placed on our internal Do Not Call list. Regions will not contact any consumer on the federal or state Do Not Call registries, unless allowed by law.
